FOREWORD

The 1961 Bulldog Staff hope that they have compiled some of the fondest incidents into indelible registry for the enjoyment of each student in years to come.

The Staff is indebted to Mr. Bernard Jons and Mr. Frank Davis for taking and processing all pictures, other than the Senior pictures, in this yearbook. We are sure these many pictures will be instrumental in recalling many fond memories.

COMMENCEMENT

DAY in PHS

The day of the Senior Class--collectively speaking,--begins very early and ends rather late. The activities are widely varied but begin appropriately enough at 4:30 a.m. with Ileene--who arises to study at that unearthly hour.

The next Senior on the scene is Allen Steinbeck--who is just getting home. About this same time Ken and Brad can be found stumbling out to begin chores.

At 8:30 all Seniors but three are talking sociably in the English room--Marta Crowley arrives about 8:50 (the music room clock is slow again). At about 9:00 Allen arrives with the usual pink slip and at about 10:00 Miss Houston assumes that Barb isn't going to make it this morning.

The morning goes on in the usual manner with Rene running into a little shade string trouble in Econ.

At 11:15 Ken Haack crawls behind his tuba and is not seen again until noon.

In the 4th period study hall Dorothy is seen reading back issues (1848 Life) of magazines since she has read all the current ones.

About 11:50 the Senior girls are seen getting a head start in the lunch line--led--as is customary by Georgia P. And 12:00 rolls around--12:01..... 12:02..... and 12:03 Karen Brown stirs restlessly in her study hall chair--Maggie evidently forgot the bells again!!!

At 12:30 Mary Nicholson can be found in the little room cramming for that Home Ec. test.

By 12:35 all the cautious Algebra students are sitting in the class room--Mr. Devine likes to have yesterdays assignment checked before the second bell rings.

As one stands in the hall during 6th hour some interesting sounds can be heard--Jim Proehl giggling in study hall; Sue Willey begging Gordy Peterson to please not break her last pencil, and Margaret beating the tar out of the office typewriter.

Last Study Hall

Vern signs out to Hartley--but soon returns--his car can no longer run on sheer will-power--he may have to beg a ride with Sandy, Georgia and Marcella and everybody heads for the door--except Diane who is down jumping rope with the track boys.

At 5:00 Gerrit heads for Vick's.

By 7:00 every Senior student has finished his work, eaten his dinner, and talked his dad out of the car again. —We're ready to scatter to different parts of the country--Janice's car goes to Sheldon, Sandy's to Hartley, Nicholson's to Sheldon (filled, of course, to capacity).

The Senior PHS'ers will arrive home at different times some early and some late--but we can't tattle...can we?

Clarence Haack, Charlie Mast, Larry Speaker, Mrs. Edwards, Jake Slinger.

Mrs. Mast, Mrs. Kammerer, Mrs. Yale.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1961, being of sane mind, hereby declare this to be our will.

VERNON RIEDEMEN wills his height to BILL DEVINE and his typing ability to ALLEN POSTEL.

RENE ZEIMEN wills his trips to South Dakota to anyone dumb enough to take them and his clever way with shade strings in Economics class to anyone who would like it.

GERRIT VANDER SLOOT wills his car to VICKY STEFFENS, since she is in it most of the time anyway, and his over-eating ability to BRENDA BRUNDAGE.

DIANE, SUE, MARY, DOROTHY, and MARTA will their tendency to go South to NICKY, JANE, KATHY, and PHYLLIS and charge them with the grave responsibility of keeping the path well ridden.

DOROTHY JONES wills her piano bench in boys glee to PHYLLIS BERN (just be sure you practice) and her ability (?) to get the school news in to KATHY GRAFTON--lots of luck, Kathy!

SANDRA EGGER wills her quietness to NICKY BALLARD and her trips to Hartley to LINDA PINGEL.

MARY NICHOLSON wills her parties to JANE NICHOLSON to keep it in the family and her ability to remember everyone in his car to ALLEN POSTEL.

MARCELLA GINGER wills her rowdy ways to BILL WEBB and her talkitiveness to BETTY FREEMAN.

KEN HAACK wills his trips to Sheldon to KAY LIMKE and his car to LARRY REMBE.

GEORGIA PINGEL wills her directness to BETTY BROWN and her artistic ability to ART VANDER POL.

GARY UITTENBOGAARD wills his future plan of being a girls' bb. coach at Orange City to KEN KIMMELL and his A report card to ROG ROSENBOOM.

KAREN BROWN wills to BETTY FREEMAN her quick temper---she seems to show great promise in this field, and her vim, vigor, and vitality in P.E. to VICKY STEFFENS.

BARB URBAN wills to DAN TOAL her excellent attendence record, since it has received little use from her, and her imaginative excuses to BILL WEBB. He will probably make good use of them.

MARTA CROWLEY bequeaths to LARRY REMBE her complete understanding of electronics on the condition that he earn her kind of grades with it, and her graceful ways to ART VANDER POL.

LARRY VANDER TUIG, being of weak mind and falles arches, wills his basketball shoes to DAN TOAL to hang in the hall to eliminate flies, and his ping pongpaddle to DENNIS Z. not necessarily to be used for ping pong.

BRAD MCDOWELL wills his pick-up to STEVE DORR to take Jane home in, and his girl catching traps to RONNIE GREENLEE.

DIANE DAVIS, being of weak mind and sound body, wills to BRENDA BRUNDAGE her various hair colors, since she has already done extensive research in that area and her seasonal migration to Paullina to KEN KIMMEL.

ALLEN STEINBECK wills to ROGER ROSENBOOM his ability to stay awake twenty-four hours a day, or should he say twelve hours a night, hoping Rog gets more sleep in school than he did, and his boldness and censored vocabulary to RON BRINKERT.

THIS PAGE CO-SPONSORED BY ELITE CLEANERS AND GREENLEE'S MARKET

GORDIE PETERSEN, being of weak mind and weak body, leaves behind his high school romances to EUGENE STRAND and his car to RONNIE GREENLEE. Heaven knows he needs one.

ILEENE BRINKERT wills her vocal chords to KATHY GRAFTON. Keep them tuned up Kathy.

JIM PROEHL wills to JOHN PRENDERGAST his football muscles so he can get in the game too, and his neat crew cut to FRED LORENZEN.

MARGARET BREYFOGLE wills her ability to type perfect letters for Mr. Devine and her power to keep test answers a secret to LINDA PINGEL.

JANICE LIMKE wills to her sister KAY her desire to get into the Navy, and the telephone booth and Nicholsons' street to JANE NICHOLSON.

SUSAN WILLEY wills to BETTY BROWN her wiggle and to LINDA PINGEL her ability to keep a trim figure.

To MR. FORREST and MR. MUNSTER: we suggest that if you ever run low on dilute acid, try filling the bottles from the acquarium.

To MR. DEVINE we will a machine that will stop each student at the door and take the gum from his mouth, eliminating a lot of unnecessary themes for the students.

To MR. DUHRKOPF and MR. SORENSON we will Joe Bellino, Wilt Chamberlin and John Thomas.

IN MEMORIAM

EMILIE WOLF
Born: Sept. 30, 1944 Died: May 18, 1961

The Primghar School Annual is published in memory of Emilie Wolf, a member of the junior class of 1961. Emilie held the top scholastic rating in her class in addition to being a member of the concert and marching bands, vocal groups, newspaper staff, and the National Honor Scholastic Society. She was president of the local chapter of the honor society and had held various class offices. We will always remember Emilie as a truly fine young women and an outstanding school citizen.

As we weary Juniors walked out the doors of good old PHS on the last day of school, our thoughts wandered back to the important events of last year. The first major event which confronted us was the choosing of our class ring. Excitedly we picked them out, ordered them, and then waited until they arrived. Now we really felt like Juniors and upperclassmen.

Smiles were on the faces of many of the Juniors as they remembered working on the gym with the theme "Blue Moon" for Homecoming. Sighs of relief could be heard as we remembered working in the Junior refreshment stands at football and basketball games.

Many of us remembered displaying our abilities as actors and actresses in "The Adorable Imp". We thought it was the best play ever given in PHS. Then came the big event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. We decorated the gym with "An Evening in Paris" theme and worked frantically until the last minute to construct our magnificient Eiffel Tower.

Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Forrest, and Mrs. Gruenhaupt, the Junior Class sponsors, worked hard to keep our numerous projects going; although, many times they were ready to tear out their hair in despair.

Finally came graduation and we watched the Seniors march down with dreams of the following year when we would be Seniors and could look forward to graduating.

Oh, the sophomore class was happy to leave the tenderfoot realm of the freshmen last year, but we still have fond memories of our first year in high school. Again at the close of the term we are looking forward to our next year in PHS, but even more eagerly, for now we have approached the classical rank of "upperclassmen". However, let's not dwell too much on the future, and instead pause to review the past nine months. Our highlight was receiving first prize on our Homecoming float entitled "Milford's Last Stand". Our class consistently had the greatest per cent of students on the honor roll, and the least per cent on the ineligible list. Our class does not have too much to remember as a whole but I'm sure each individual will long recall his "special days" of his year.

As freshmen we have enjoyed this year with its activities and work tremendously. As for work we had the subjects algebra, general math, home ec., shop, English, Latin, and biology to keep us busy. As far as activities we had a variety of choices including, sports such as football and basketball, vocal music which consisted of numerous different groups, band, and of course the fun of getting ready for big school events like homecoming etc. All in all we think we have gained a lot from this year and are ready to begin next year with the same goal in mind.
